Jeffrey: I have had this newspaper article in my bag since the last time I left australia and have been meaning to send it to you.. I put it in an envelope and then realized I didn't have your address handy so I scanned it (badly.. one page I did twice cause I couldn't get it all in). This guy created the most amazing art museum in the world, in my opinion, in Tasmania.. anyway when I read about him, I realized you guys have some things in common.. at least math aptitude.. :) anyway, I thought it was interesting, and I would send it to you.. Don't know if you ever will have the chance to meet him.. but if you want to go to Tasmania to do it, I am in. :)
