Hello Magus,

Woody Allen should be a very interesting person to have a dinner with, but do you really enjoy his films?

The menstruation cycle is in its beginning, so may be it is a good period to communicate.

I got rid of my lover to have more time for me (btw it had nothing to do with the mundanity but with the drama, you remember, the russian thing). Reading Kafka now, it is so funny and so actual, enjoying it so much.

After our two interviews, I continue to discuss with myself, what actually I want to do in my life. After visiting the Hermitage in St Petersburg last saturday (the white nights are magic), i dream of selling art. But to make it on a certain level (otherwise it is not interesting), it is only possible through having a network. May be I would develop it through selling prestigious wine.

What do you think about it?

P.s: please just do not be arrogant with me and we will both enjoy our communication (is it a better term than snobbish?)
