They didn't like the idea of doing shoots in NYC, which is the only way it would have been worthwhile for me. I suggested SPFW because it's a bi-annual thing and very concentrated, in terms of having hundreds of girls to choose from. Even models working in NY would love the opportunity to "walk the runway" (makes them feel special), so it's a great carrot to have.

Will meet the owner in April when I'm done here (I'm in Bali now then off to bangkok for a couple weeks). I suggested SPFW for you/us because I figured if you presented yourself as a silent partner they would be happy bc they would maintain control, but with me doing some of the castings, or working out a deal where I could choose 15-20 girls for each Fashion Week, then you could choose the girls you want to participate.
