when larry called hancock to place order for 10,000 gallons at 3.28 total cost into the plane he came back and said his pricing went up by 0.10 and is now 3.38

please advise if we shall still proceed with purchasing 10,000 gallons thank you

yes, agree and frustrating,. would be amazing if the price went down,. of course he says up, when we want to buy fuel,. he informed that it changes twice a month, I forgot if it was Tuesdays or Thursday's to be honest with you,. I may be confused with Tuesday Rack price with Billy, if its Tuesday in St Croix,. I guess Hancock price is still better than Billy's $3.18 rack price,.

I should know this answer, but how much does it cost to ship from St Croix to STT and into plane,. so if we pay, $3.18 in st Croix Rack price,. what does into plane final number end up to be? is it .20cents additional for shipping? or more? (I know we have add .10cents for Hancock into plane cost as well,. I'll agree with any thing you decide? maybe try Hancock for one load, and monitor price?, you know better than I if fuel barrel will rise.

larry

Rich,.

Handcock just called me,. todays fuel price in SJU has went up .03 cents,. now its $3.28 per gallon , plus the .10 cents into plane,. brings our total into plane, $3.38.

let me know if you want to proceed and I'll have Michael send Wire instructions?

thx
