Can UN Peacekeepers be Relied Upon to Keep the Peace between Israel and Its Enemies?

After the latest fighting in Gaza, there is some talk about using international troops to prevent a future flare-up. Similarly, peace negotiators have raised the idea of posting an international force in the West Bank, perhaps in the Jordan Valley, as a way of meeting Israel's security concerns.

Naturally, given its history as peacekeepers, the United Nations is viewed as a possible source for such a force. History has taught the Israelis, however, that UN forces are ineffective and cannot be relied upon to shield Israelis from those who wish to do them harm.
