..so we modified the rocks in the corner, and around the door too.

the longer rocks in the corners i made them longer with 4 inches then before. on the left side corner the smaller rocks i left them same lenght like before so the difference between rocks is bigger. on the right side corner i made the smaller rocks longer too so the difference between rocks is somehow like it used to be before.

on the right side corner also on the bottom i left white the distance between rocks, and on the top i colored with dark brown the distance between rocks...

on the right side bottom of the wall we draw some rocks..., maybe we can draw that and then colored on top of the rocks the dark horizontal lines like in the last picture attached here.

you can see in picture also the rocks around the door are smaller., the door is not finished yet.. the arch should be like in last picture i attached here. also inside the arch should have some design ..you showed me in some picture..

in the fourth picture i draw a few rocks with the same distance between rocks but i made them longer with 4 inches and sharp corners..

the 5th, 6th and 7th picture i draw the design on the floor..

so should we continue tomorrow finish the door, trace the horizontal lines etc..?
