It absolutely is. Everyone on the planet wants to finance our M&A. That's the easy part. What I'm trying to balance is this: if they do the banking part about which you and I are concerned primarily, then they will inevitably (and appropriately) want more of the overall business relationship as quid pro quo. I don't want to commit elsewhere as I think it's an important carrot, so I'm just trying to manage the chicken and the egg thing.
