Hi Richard ,

I am taking over the order for the Mercedes – Maybach S600 Sedan .

Please take a look at the attachment which has the Dealer Order Guide . This will show pictures colors and options available .

As mentioned today in our conversation the car comes with the Executive Rear Seat Package as standard Equipment . You can see a picture of it on page 8 in the Order guide .

We need to make sure when we speak again that this is the way Mr. Epstein wants the car built .

As you can see in the order guide as well the intended launch date is in April 2015 . This is a tentative date so it may change a bit for actual delivery dates .

Let me know if you have any questions regarding the options .

Thanks again !

Best Regards ,
