thank you for your first draft I think it is a bit too obvious . I like the women as legs. i think it should be a desk of the 21 centyry with places for laptops chargers etc, it should inclnde a reference to music science and mathematics, thes could be in inlays or mounts, there should be a way to hide the computer inside, and have it raise and slide in so that when closed it is beaultiful with no tech showing, maybe mounts of differnect disciplinee , music instruments? etc, sceince tools. ? etc . . the shape i think should be more like the louis 16 rolltop desk then a bearaue plat, but lets try again
