no
he scheduled call with david for tomorrow 9am i get the sense he is aware another couple came to see LSJ i spoke with michael ross and he was not onboard with compensation package presented i thought he was a bit pushy but he said he is happy with current job and does not want to move for similar package i informed him package presented was excellent and very top of range for his position he said he would discuss with kimberly and be in touch but i ma thinking that he will pass on job opportunity..
