 Discuss the state of education with reporter Nikole Hannah-Jones

 What do New York City schools reveal about education and the future of our students?

DeVos is in. The future of education is uncertain. And New York City schools remain some of the most segregated in the nation. In this exclusive Times Insider conversation, journalist Nikole Hannah-Jones, author of the National Magazine Award-winning story "Choosing a School for My Daughter in a Segregated City," is joined by City Council member Ritchie Torres (the Bronx) and others to discuss the crisis in the classroom and how to make education equitable for all.

Tuesday, June 13 | 6:30 - 7:45pm | The TimesCenter | 242 West 41st Street

$10 Times Insider price per ticket; two tickets maximum per purchase.
