How do I get in touch with Jeffrey in NY? I would like to meet up with him during my time there.

Thanks, Peter.

Would you be able to get together sometime on 19th during the day? I plan to take the 20:30 flight to return to Beijing on 19th.

I am in UK then. I am arriving back from Beijing over the weekend of 18/19 Sept depending on my engagements there. On Monday 20th I am likely to be in Oxford and then speaking at a dinner in Bucks so that day is not good. I am in London on Tue 21st and Wed 22 before flying to Singapore . I am then not back in London til Oct 4/5 as I shall be in South Africa and Congoi.

Does this mean you will be in London before 11th and between 19th and 22nd?

If that is the case, I can come see you in London on 19th / 20th.

My schedule in China is a bit complicated. I arrive on Monday 13 Sep with an official UK delegation until Wednesday. I then want to stay on until Fri/Sat unofficially to meet people and network for the future but I am not sure how to do this, where to stay or get myself around because I want to be independent of the Embassy.

After China I am in UK except for Singapore (Sep 23-27) and South Africa (Sep 28-Oct 4).

What do you think ?

Peter

Hi Peter,

What is your schedule mid next month? I may have to go to NY for a meeting on 10th and then off to Switzerland . It may work out better if we can meet after your trip to China .

Let me know.
