i want to discuss something that is very important. when you present mr epstein with a paper: punchlist or any other documents please make 100 percent sure you are intimately familiar with each entry and understand the issues as he will go through things in detail. mr epstein finds little time if the person presenting has not fully understood what they give him. I understand there were many errors on the list you recently provided with dates, etc.. lets discuss later when we talk please let me know what time is best thank you
