What you say/write to Scheerer may someday be disclosed and if any deposition question is about you and B/E and the answers from Rothstein - who has no ostensible motive to accuse many and protect one - are consistent with B/E claims you will have to consider its effect on any ongoing complaint and whether it should lead to changing/dismissing some claims. Again, its out of my expertise but want you to weigh +/- about initiating questions that would be asked by another lawyer with little loyalty to you
