Hello Jeffrey,

Having read the two letters your lawyer sent to Tina Brown, I have some questions that concern me. I would appreciate your response at your earliest convenience, thank you,

1. Do you believe in God?
2. Do you believe that people who are wealthy and successful have a responsibility towards society?
3. Does it worry you that child sex trafficking exists in our society?
4. If you had a daughter and she was sexually abused what would you do if they arrested the pedophile?
5. Do you believe the crimes you were found guilty and served time for (solicitation of prostitution with a minor), have a moral impact on society?
6. What first made you decide to pay for a massage with an underage and unlicensed girl? Was there a pragmatic reason for your decision?
7. Did you ever fall in love with one of your underage "masseuses"?
8. Why did you never marry? Do you believe in love? Do you want to have children?
9. Did either of your parents or a family member abuse you as a child or adolescent-physically or verbally?
10. Did a non family member sexually abuse you as a child or adolescent?
11. You are recognized as a generous philanthropist towards scientific institutions and some political candidates in the Democratic party why not to children-related causes?
12. How do you decide what business to invest in and when to sell your investment?
13. Leading psychologist's agree that the rate of recidivism amongst sexual offenders is as high as 85% after release and that the crime is perpetrated soon after usually within a three to six months period of release. Do you agree? Have you had an uncontrollable urge to repeat the offenses you served time for?
14. Do you believe that justice was served in your case?

Thank you,
