Hi << Test First Name >>

Melbourne's newest and most inclusive co-working community was officially launched by The Victorian Minister for Small Business, Innovation and Trade, Philip Dalidakis MP.

Designed as a space to foster innovation and entrepreneurship, Dimension5 is a partnership between global ICT solutions and services provider Dimension Data Australia and Creative Universe.

Innovators, social entrepreneurs, government, education and business leaders are joining together to support the collaborative space, that is focused on developing more social innovation and fostering diversity and enterprise.

The launch's party was attended by over 150 valued guests and included Federal Member for Melbourne Adam Bandt MP, CEO of LaunchVic Dr Pradeep Phillip, Chair of AICC Leon Kempler, Dimension Data CEO Rodd Cunico, Greenhill Chair Peter Hunt, Pitcher Partners' Rohini Kappadath and Cisco Head of Corporate and Government Affairs Tim Fawcett.

Guests were serenaded by Tania de Jong AM (founder of Creative Universe, Creative Innovation Global and Creativity Australia) and also entertained by Creativity Australia's inclusive choir, With One Voice, made up of people from all faiths, cultures and backgrounds. Isobar, a global digital agency provided Virtual Reality headsets for guests to 'experience' the future.
