That's what John went with.

With warm regards,

Cecile

Subject: URGENT REQUEST FOR COMMENT ON EDC BENEFITS/ICC VITELCO/OTHER COMPANIES
To: "Jean P. Greaux, Jr." <[REDACTED]>

Jean,

I've learned that ICC/VITELCO is in the process of applying for new EDC tax benefits – a 100 percent exemption of all taxes, including income taxes. Attorney Marjorie Rawls Roberts is helping them with the application, and according to one of my sources, former Sen. Roosevelt David is helping as well.

My source adds that Gov. deJongh, who will ultimately approve the application or not approve it, is pushing this application through the EDC, is using Mr. David to push the application through the process.

In addition, it is estimated that those benefits – if Gov. deJongh ends up approving the application – would amount to about $3 million per year that ICC/VITELCO would not have to pay in taxes.

Do you have any comment/response?

Also, at least as of September 13, 2011, Gov. deJongh's wife is listed in official EDC records as being employed by convicted sex offender Jeffrey Epstein's Financial Trust Company, Inc. Her title, according to the documents, is "manager."

Does Cecile deJongh still work for Mr. Epstein's company? If so, what is her role with the company and did she have anything to do with Mr. Epstein's company getting EDC tax benefits?

CECILE DE JONGH CURRENTLY WORKS FOR FINANCIAL TRUST COMPANY IN THE CAPACITY OF OFFICE MANAGER. SHE HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH FINANCIAL TRUST COMPANY RECEIVING EDC TAX BENEFITS.

If not, when did she leave Mr. Epstein's company, what was her role when she was there and, once again, did she have anything to do with Mr. Epstein's company getting EDC tax benefits?

My deadline is 5 p.m. today.

With warm regards,

Cecile
