Jeffrey,

Please find attached amended tracked and clean versions of the draft letter to the Daily Telegraph, which you will note I have tightened up significantly on the basis of your respective contributions. Let me know what you think.

So far as the D of Y's statement to the press is concerned, I am wondering whether it might be better if this were conveyed to her via personal contact from Ghislaine, as she may be either wobbled or discouraged by her solicitor. I have no problem in putting one or both versions to RC-M, but my instinct is that he will favour a more anodyne approach.

Kind regards

Paul
