Roy,

Per your request, please find attached revised consulting contract and fee schedule for your review. We currently have (16) man hours in billable time for consultation at a rate of $45 per man hour ($720) from our last visit on 2/11/2013 (Ken & Cynthia); we also have approximately (12) hours design time for schematics that will be reviewed this Fri. with Ken ($780); and the additional (16) man hours for the upcoming visit for spraying/consultation with Ken this week ($720). Our first visit on 1/19/2013, including transportation costs, was at our expense.

Let me know if you have questions or require additional information.

Regards,

Cynthia Holmes
