how to: Master poker

with Byron Jacobs

How can you maximise your chances of success playing poker?

What do the strong players understand that the weaker players don't?

Which skills are essential for long term success?

The answers to these questions are surprising and not at all obvious. Byron Jacobs has been a successful poker player for over a decade. He is the author of three poker books and runs a poker publishing company. He will show you exactly how you need to approach the game in order to maximise your chances now and to improve in the long term. This will be by using both theoretical and practical examples.
