Good afternoon Jeffrey.

I hope you're doing well. I finally got the news from Peter's HR after 5 interviews with the team. The email said that they didn't select me for the role followed by the long explanation why.

My biggest concern during the interviews with the members of the team was their focus on my modeling career, perhaps this is why they didn't see me as a strong candidate.

You mentioned the other day that you wanted to know from David what made him push me back to mid May, did you hear his feedback?

I would love to contact him again, please let me know what you think.

Thank you for your support, so much!
