So that means you are still offering her 10m for her land which she already says she is not interested. She agreed to see me only if I have a new good proposal.

Dear Jeffrey,

I asked around and got some useful information. To construct a house in Marrakech it cost approximately 1.500 € per m². As far as decoration it is rather approximative because we do not know which style you really want super Moroccan, Moresque, contemporary and to what level. What can I tell you more I do not know.

Big Kisses,
