Happy Holidays from The Kitchen!

Our Growing Family

Can you believe another year has already passed? Neither can we! Here at The Kitchen, we've been staying busy with several restaurant openings in Colorado, including The Kitchen Next Door Glendale, The Kitchen Fort Collins, and The Kitchen Next Door Union Station. And, as many of you know, this fall we extended our roots outside Colorado borders and opened The Kitchen Chicago.

Meet The Kitchen Family : Michael Heim

Most recently, we spoke with Michael Heim who shared his reason for staying in Colorado: "I got hooked into The Kitchen and found my family; my network." Originally from Omaha, Michael found his calling in the world of wild mushrooms. He belongs to the Mycological Society here in Colorado, grows his own mushrooms, leads forays and teaches classes on cultivation. Learn more about Michael in this "Meet The Kitchen Family" interview.

Meet The Kitchen Purveyor : Conscious Coffees' Mark Glenn

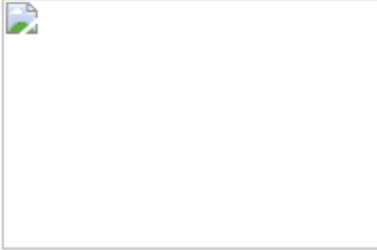

We sat down with one of our local purveyors, Mark Glenn of Conscious Coffees, to learn more about how he and his wife, Mel, became involved with The Kitchen. He says, "I've been with The Kitchen since day one and I feel strongly that The Kitchen could have been responsible, certainly in our five state region, but perhaps in a bigger part of this country, to turn the direction of coffee in restaurants." Read more from our interview with Mark to learn more about his life and involvement in the coffee movement.

Holiday Recipes For Your Family

Although we will be closed on Thanksgiving Day (Nov. 27th) to show our appreciation for our family of staff, we wanted to spread the holiday spirit. Below, Chef Kyle has shared a few of his favorite recipes that we hope you can enjoy at your own holiday gatherings.
