Still enjoying your time? Sure you are!

Again, I am very grateful you offered me to stay in NY! Very touched. Now we are in this Provence mansion that I hired a week ago: very hot here, relatively good wine. Quite boring though. But the kids are happy...

I am thinking of the small structure I will run for Ariane from October/November on. We will hire a few young talented guys to work with me (you inspired this, didn't you? :)). Any ideas of good people? Would love to have a European guy, an Asian one and possibly someone different like Fabrice.

I will still have to make this work - because the structure of the Group is still not ready to have a bunch of guys with many ideas aimed at transforming stuff and moving fast...

Last: I'd like to talk to you about central Asia in September.
