Barry, I would like to agree to Dan taking his new role. However I think it not in the company's interest. I also disagree with Gersten taking a job as COO. I appreciate the fact that we are done with each other and would propose the following: I sell you my stock, I resign effective immediately, we exchange mutual releases that are end of the world releases, including getting rid of the non-disparagement and confidentiality covenants, not necessary as they are part of release, only gives each other standing. We both go our merry ways.
