yes , and if it were a paper case, where he could read and sign we might be ok, might however a real case. NO WAY. I would suggest playing the war game out with Kathy, have her tell you what it might lead to? you have many decisions to make and actions to take. as i have always said the first second and third priority is protection!!. protection for you , the girls the bank, the family .

He knows the case well as i have been briefing him systematically on all aspects + he has better knowledge than me on historical agreements between Edmond,David and Eric...

They are themselves in uncomfortable position: managing partners who were led to believe they owned the brand, french taxes, misuse of Lafite for bking ( even using Lafite photographs for their advertising) etc not bad, however , he can not handle a hostile deposition. where all questions about the bank , and his knowledge will be on the table. . since the case is about unfair practice. etc. GO SLOW
