Deborah just sent us the accounting. I guess you lit a fire.

Could you please find out from Deborah who is concerned about the increase in expenses. Since my children had expressed concerns, I sent them an explanation in detail of the way money was being taken from the IRA -- half of the annual withdrawal requirement for distribution to family, taxes for the estate, management fees for the estate, the Wellfleet house, all of this exceeding the required withdrawal before we took a cent for ourselves, or started paying lawyers, etc. I could explain it to Deborah and Max too if they are concerned. And I would like to do so when I find out who is expressing these concerns, which I did hear and then explained, ending the discussion.

I will talk to her and max again on monday. the idea that you are paying taxes from the IRA is just WRONG / she also refernced this oft expressed view, but they are concerned about the increase in expenses. but upon being questioned she doesnt know any numbers AT ALL. when I asked her to forward you the accounting email she received from max, she said she couldnt do it today. ODD as it is simply pushing forward button on an email. . send her a note that asks that she send you the accounting ASAP
