I call it intentional mistake.
Don't understand why they keep postponing everything. What are they gaining with that?

I can write her to ask her to send both of us the passwords, and to Fedex the hard copy to us.

Would that be the best way to proceed?

The only communication we got from Deborah is the letter that was also sent to you. I don't see any password either. She said she could Fedex hard copy. Should I ask her for that, and then Fedex to you?

Or should I tell her that I can't open it without a password?
