This may be difficult by email. Our auction has several parts that generate the total raised. We make money selling a booklet with ads. We have a silent auction and a live auction. We make money on ticket sales. We have a flea market. Then there is the sponsor board. We have different levels of sponsors. The total raised is often in the 80K range. The money goes into a general fund but we often ear mark it towards our rabbi's salary. If you have any interest we have a new rabbi who I am hoping will be the best we've had in some time. Fingers crossed there. As I said earlier we also have a myriad of funds that are available.

Hi and thanks for getting back to me. There are many ways that you can contribute financially. You can do it by name, a company or anonymous. For the auction we have sponsors. If you truly are interested in making a difference with a substantial gift then we can delve further into the needs of the synagogue and you can choose where and how you would like to contribute. I am thrilled that you are willing and able to do something. At this point our conversation is only between the two of us and my wife.
Thanks again, Donald

Good morning Jeffrey
Been some time since we last communicated. I hope this finds you well and perhaps wearing a yarmulke today.
I don't know if you follow any of your Jewish roots and it is certainly nothing we ever talked about the few times we met or emailed back and forth. You must have in learning about me found that I am and have always been very actively involved with the Jewish community here, especially our synagogue.
To my knowledge none of us have every come to you with fundraising or asked for any financial support so this may well be a first.
While I/we would love to have you contribute in any way to any numerous funds we have or our endowment my email today is about far simpler and mundane.
We have an annual auction usually in February. This is our one and only fundraiser every year. Would you ever consider a contribution to that event such as a dinner for "x" number of people on Little St. James? Or a ride to New York in your plane? Or something of that sort?

I realize this is a long shot but it never hurts to ask?

Thanks, Donald

P.S. How is Karyna doing? Did she ever set up anywhere on island?
