Health Secrets of Top Doctors in NYC this Week

Join the leading figures of the natural health movement at the Integrative Healthcare Symposium in New York City on Feb. 19-21.

The Integrative Healthcare Symposium annual conference is returning to New York City this year for its 11th edition of the event.

The Pre-Conference will occur on February 18; Conference February 19-21 and Exhibits will take place February 20-21. The full event will take place at the New York Hilton Midtown. It's never too late to register.

Dr. Leo Galland, internationally recognized as a founder of Functional and Integrative Medicine, will give a landmark lecture titled Patient-Centered Diagnosis, at 10:15 AM - 11:45 AM on Feb. 19, 2015.

Dr. Galland was honored with the Linus Pauling Award from Institute for Functional Medicine in recognition of his creation of "Patient-Centered Diagnosis." His critical breakthrough is to view the patient not as a disease, but as a work of art.
