Will there be peace if Israel ends the occupation?

The mantra of the Palestinians and their supporters since 1967 has been, "End the occupation." The assumption underlying this slogan is that peace will follow the end of Israel's "occupation." The equally popular slogan among critics of Israeli policy has been that it should "trade land for peace." Again, the premise being that it is simply Israel's presence on land claimed by the Palestinians that is the impediment to peace.

Where's the Concern for Muslims Killing Muslims?

For the past several weeks, major media outlets and liberals have been outraged by the Trump administration policy of singling out immigrants from seven Muslim countries for extra vetting. They shout, "Discrimination," "Islamophobia," "How dare the president treat innocent people, many fleeing from conflict zones, so callously?"
