i spoke with Comcast and they had no information on when this new service would be coming out. currently we are set up as a business account since account is in the name of Neptune LLC there are a few other plans you may want to consider if you are unhappy with your speed:

Current Plan - 2MB upload 16MB download $89.95 per month

Other options - 5MB upload 20MB download $99.95 per month
10MB upload 50MB download $189.95 per month
20MB upload 100MB download $369.95 per month

The modem currently in the house cannot handle any of the higher speeds so we would need a technician to come to house to swap modems.

Please advise
