He asked for guarantee you'd fund what insurance didn't and said insurance max was 133 but I could try for more
I said I could only guarantee his end but we should work on language and talk to insurer
I called him back right after our call - he had called during it so didn't see email
Never believed you wanted me to indicate you would pay subject to language which was demand he was making

Another words there is no language yet and he will not have simpson call scarola on these conditions if there is no monetary deal conditioned on confidentiality
He is very emotional, talking about ending discussions and just going forward
