Yes, correct the hot water heater in the master is an issue and will be addressed when you go off site, the production water is good, but we are still flushing the residue water out of all the pipes etc to insure that the good production water is through out the system. TSG said this could be up to a week or more.

Hoping this addresses your concerns

Good Morning

As of date & time Smiley is still flushing out the system after the completed service last weekend It will take several days to get all the residue out of the system.

Danny could you please remove/clean the master shower head this morning

After visit showers, faucets etc will be cleaned, flushed out & a complete review of the system will occur.

Regards

Karen
