I thought you knew, because I have said and written, how much I appreciate your support. You are not an easy person to give to you because you already have. But when you didn't 'have', during your trials and tribulations, I never left your side, I was always there with advice and moral support, and I never turned away. So although I accept your stricture, of course, and feel it deeply, I don't think it has been a total one way street.
