I have no problem Explaining what I was doing at 3 AM. I made numerous attempts to file a police report all the phone records will show it. The night of the incident I contacted your employee Carlos and he said "we would handle it in the morning". I hope u do have us on camera, and if you do it will make this Situation a lot easier. The kelly bluebook on a 2004 Chevy suburban in mint condition is $10,800 shipping to St. Thomas US Virgin Islands is $1800
That puts you at $ 12600.00 were are u coming up with 20k. If I was Willing to accept this offer you would still owe me to $ 10,400

i have attached the 2004 Suburban registration please note we do have liability insurance on the car but not property insurance please be aware that if this is litigated you will need to explain why no police report was filed, what you were doing out until 3am, etc.
in addition the entire incident (in bar, parking lot) was recorded on camera which will help clarify any discrepancies of the fact pattern.. i made an offer of 3,000 so if that amount is unacceptable please tell me what is acceptable so we both can spend our time more productively thank you

You & I Both know the suburban is not worth 20k. I met with my attorney again a few minutes ago and he advised me of all my rights. He is ready to file suit for breach of contract & and advised me seek medical treatment, no latter than tomorrow. He is also curious why we have not received your vehicle insurance information. You also legally need to provide me with auto insurance. Do you have insurance? If not you all gave me keys and access to an uninsured vehicle and if that is the case LSJ is responsible for damages and medical injuries. My crew and I witnessed things on the island that could get people in a lot of trouble, we never signed confidentiality agreements. I have never been stiffed or screwed out of any money, until now. I would like to resolve this issue immediately. We can both sign cease & dismiss letters and put all this behind us. What is your reasonable offer?

Thanks Dustin Skitka
