Dear Mr. Summers:

It was indeed a great pleasure and privilege for me and the whole team to host you in Almaty. Needless to say how much we all admire your expertise, your rich experience and your important role in US policy decisions over the last decades.

I very much enjoyed our frank conversation that I gained so much insight from. I hope you enjoyed your first experience of Kazakhstan.

We also look forward to our meeting in DC and I greatly appreciate your kindly offering help in set up meetings. We shall be in touch closer to the dates of the meetings to firm up the details.

I have high hopes for our partnership and I am strongly convinced that it would be a successful undertaking that will have a lasting impact for our country and the wellbeing of our people.
