Unfortunately they cannot because [REDACTED] was not that long

Optional Practical Training (OPT) is a period during which undergraduate and graduate students with F-1 status who have completed or have been pursuing their degrees for more than nine months are permitted by the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) to work for one year on a student visa towards getting practical training to complement their education.

I am trying to find a company that will take me for my special skills ([REDACTED] law, [REDACTED] languages) and sponsor the visa process..

Kind regards/Cordialement,

[REDACTED]

Hi Jeffrey,

How are you? I am looking for a job as a lawyer or front office worker in wealth management in the Bay area but I do not have a green card or a visa entitling me to work after university. So the company would need to sponsor. Do you know any law firms and banks with whom you can connect me in the Bay area?

Thank you.

Warm regards,
