I know you simply do what you like. But I am a girl and this is what is going through my head when you ask me to travel with you...

- 1 is it because you need help
- 2 is it because you like to spend time with me
- 3 is it because you think you are doing me a favor
- 4 is it because no one else could come
- 5 is it because a plane ticket back costs money
- 6 is it because you are exercising you grandfathered privileges
- 7 is it because you had a fight with your girlfriend
- 8 is it because you can
- 9 is it because you want to confirm 'you still got it'
- 10 is it because you like to keep me guessing
- 11 is it because you like to confirm you are still in control
- 12 is it because you think I have no other plans
- 13 is it because it is wrong
- 14 is it because you miss me
- 15 is it because you want to make someone else jealous
- 16 is it because you know I'm happy and it might rub off
- 17 is it because you don't like Dave
- 18 is it because you get the milk for free without buying the cow
- 19 is it because you just like to sleep with my big ass
- 20 is it because you want to have casual meaningless fun
- 21 is it because you are now into older women
- 22 is it because you realized there is no one better than me
- 23 is it because you need a short break from russians
- 24 is it because you need me for something
- 25 is it because I have porn
- 26 is it because you need a friend you can trust
- 27 is it because I am on your speed dial and you are too lazy to call someone else
- 28 is it because you like to let me fly and don't care if I am there after landing
- 29 is it because you didn't think I would ask 29 questions and you are now changing you mind...?
