Re: Jane Doe v. Epstein

Dear Brad:

During depositions you have stated or relied upon documents that apparently emanated from your own discovery of the files of at least the State Attorney or PBPD. Accordingly, please disclose to us any such information. Next, during discovery you have requested, and a Court has allowed, information that Epstein's counsel received from USAO and/or federal law enforcement, we accordingly request that you provide us with any such information you have received in response to any request, exchange of letters, etc....

I will agree to receive them pursuant to a voluntary protective order, one you refused to enter, that they will not be disseminated to any third parties and only used, if at all, during the trial of any of the cases involving your three (3) clients. While we would not ordinarily seek such information, given your production requests and follow-up litigation, we have no alternative except to seek reciprocal discovery that parallels the extent of the court order which we complied with on June 30, 2010.

Obviously, we are entitled to such information as you will or seem to imply that same will be used at trial.

Cordially yours,

Michael J. Pike
