Re: [REDACTED] v. Jeffrey Epstein
Case No. 502008CA028051XXXMB AD

Jane Doe (S.R.) v. Jeffrey Epstein
Case No. 08-CV-80893-Marra/Johnson

Dear Brad:

This letter will confirm the 20-day extension you granted to my client in which to respond to discovery in the above-styled cases from their due date on April 26, 2009. In Jane Doe (S.R.), the discovery was served by mail on March 23rd; therefore with 3 days for mailing and including the 30 days allowed by the Rule, the response to the First Request for Admission, First Set of Interrogatories and First Request for Production is due on April 26, 2009. With the 20-day extension you granted to my client, the "new" due date is now on May 16, 2009.

With regard to [REDACTED], the Plaintiff's Expert Witness' Interrogatories, First Request for Admissions, First Set of Interrogatories and First Request for Production were served on March 20th, therefore with 5 days for mailing in state court including the 30 days allowed by the Rule, the response by Mr. Epstein will be due on April 25, 2009. With the 20-day extension you granted to Mr. Epstein, the "new" due date is May 15, 2009.
