Re: Epstein Matter

Dear Bob:

On June 8, 2009, Kathy Ezell wrote a letter to me regarding outstanding fee payment issues. At page 3, she stated that she was not adverse to an earlier proposal that had been discussed amongst the parties to rely on a Special Master to resolve outstanding fee-related issues. We agree with Kathy's "proposal" that we rely on a Special Master to resolve all outstanding fee issues. Let's work during our Wednesday meeting to select an appropriate Special Master and let's agree to see whether, in the interim, we can resolve these issues even before they are submitted to the [REDACTED].

Cordially yours,

Robert D. Critton, Jr.

Re: Epstein Matter

Dear Bob and Kathy:

As you know, we have a meeting scheduled for this Wednesday, June 17, 2009 at Jack Goldberger's office in West Palm Beach. Any discussions which we have are to be completely confidential. These discussions are not discoverable nor admissible for any purpose including but not limited to §90.408 F.S. and Rule 408 Federal Rules of Evidence, unless there is a stipulation or agreement or the information is reduced to writing and you and I both agree can be utilized by either one of us. Such as, we may discuss the fee issue, special master, protocol, etc. which we may then reduce to writing.

Please advise whether the above is acceptable and/or whether you have any other thoughts.

Cordially yours,

Robert D. Critton, Jr.
