

Curriculum Vitae of Dr Elisabeth J.J. Maxwell

Email: [REDACTED]

Chairman, Board of Trustees "Remembering for the Future Online"

[REDACTED]
1932-1939	Lycées Edgar Quinet, Lyon; Lycée of St Omer & Victor Hugo, Paris
1939	Baccalauréat ès Lettres, cum Laude, Paris 1939
1940-1944	Sorbonne - Law Faculty (studies interrupted by the war)
1945	Marriage to Robert Maxwell, 9 children, 2 deceased
1962-1991	Editorial Relations' work for Pergamon Press, later as a Director.
1964-1970	Worked in the political field whilst her husband was a Member of Parliament, holding many local positions in North Bucks Labour Party
1970	A level English and French, Oxford Board
1974	BA in Modern Languages, Oxford University
1981	D. Phil., Oxford University
1981-1988	Holocaust and Christian-Jewish Relations studies Chairman of Remembering for the Future Conference (Oxford & London)
1988	Permanent member of the Executive Committee of the Annual Scholars' conference on the Churches and the Holocaust
1989-1991	Lectures in UK, USA, Canada, France and Israel
1992-1994	Writing her memoirs: 'A Mind Of My Own'
1994	'A Mind Of My Own' published by HarperCollins, USA,, Sidgwick & Jackson, UK, and by Robert Laffont, France: sous le titre: "Tout Soleil Est Amer",
1995	Nominated Grand Marshall of the Israel Day Parade in New York 'A Mind Of My Own' republished by Pan Books/Macmillan UK
1996	'A Mind Of My Own,' pub. by Piemme in Italy: Anche il sole è amaro
1997	Invited to give the 5th Bernie Vigod Lecture in Fredericton, New Brunswick, Canada. Launches international conference Remembering for the Future 2000 (RFTF2000)
1998	Elected Executive Chairman of RFTF2000 .
1995-1999	Public Lecturing in the USA, Canada, the UK, France and Israel. Holder of a current US J1 Academic visa
2000	Chairs RFTF2000 conference in Oxford & London, UK July 16-23

- 2001 Co-Editor of the selected proceedings of RFTF 2000 conference, launched on 8th May 2001 by Palgrave -Macmillan UK.
Nominated Hon President of Remembering for the Future after Official transfer of Remembering for the Future to Beth Shalom Holocaust Memorial Centre
- 2002 - 2003 Lecturing in USA, and in Europe
- 2003- Appointed on the Executive Committee of the Dreyfus Society for Human Rights as Editorial adviser
- 2005 "The Elisabeth Maxwell Research Fund", dedicated to the study & teaching of the Holocaust and Genocide Studies created in her honour in January, by the Cambridge Centre for the Study of Jewish-Christian Relations (UK)
The Dreyfus Affair – A Chronological History published in May by Palgrave- Macmillan UK
- 2006 Present "Established "Remembering for the Future Online" (RFTF Online) dedicated to launching new Projects to facilitate the location and study of all survivor Testimonies. Charity Status was awarded.
- 2007-2009 A new project was launched under the title of "RFTF Online "Survivor Testimony Database & Locator".(STDL)
Obtained Phase 1 Funding
Funding to complete Phases 1 achieved and Phase 1 work completed..
- 2010 Fundraising to complete Phases 2 and 3 for STDL Project.

Referees:

- Professor Yehuda BAUER, Director of Research, Yad Vashem, The International Center For Holocaust , Jerusalem 91034, ISRAEL.
- Rt Rev Richard HARRIES –
- Sir Martin GILBERT, C.C.E., D.Litt, Fellow of Merton College, Oxford,UK
- Rev Professor John PAWLIKOWSKI , Professor of Social Ethics, Catholic Theological Union, Chicago, IL 60615-6500 USA – Former President of the International Council of Christians and Jews
- Professor John ROTH, Emeritus, Claremont McKenna College, Claremont, CA -
- Rabbi Professor Dr Jonathan MAGONET, former Principal of Leo Baeck College, Sternberg Centre for Judaism London