

Zorro Development Corp

49 Zorro Ranch Road
Stanley, NM 87056

Management Couple

Responsibilities include but not limited to.

- Accounts management and budget control
- Staff and contractor management
- Purchasing for both household and ranch needs
- Livestock oversight
- Record/Inventory Keeping
- Knowledge of HAVAC, RO systems and communications systems
- Maintenance of Main residence and outer buildings
- Light cooking
- Knowledge of Windows and Mac Computer programs
- Prepared to work extra hours when principle is in residence
- Min 5 yrs working in a similar situation
- Pool and Spa maintenance
- Liaise with State and Federal agencies
- Driving of principle and guests
- Knowledge of Ranch work and needs

Overview

Live in position, semi furnished housing

Food and Uniform only provided during principle/guest visits

Medical

Vehicle provided, work related only.

home phone

~ Slim Walters ~
(Deveral W. Walters)

Objective

Seeking full time position utilizing my skills and experience in the cattle, horse and/or hospitality industries.

Qualifications

Lifetime experience in all aspects of the cattle ranching industry in the southwest (AZ, NM) and northwest (OR, NV) regions, as well as Wyoming. Certified by Carnation Genetics in pregnancy detection and artificial insemination of cattle. Graduate of Jack Hedricks School for Stockmen in aspects of veterinary medicine for the cattle rancher. Lifetime experience in starting colts, training saddle horses, and shoeing. Some experience in packing, guiding, dude wrangling, camp cooking, dutch oven cooking and pit barbeque, as well as assisting professional chefs on guest ranches.

Experience

- 10/05-Present Self-employed contracting the care and back-grounding of calves and yearlings on both winter and summer operations in Magdalena and Moriarty areas of New Mexico.
- 3/00 – 10/05 Managed yearling operations for cutting horse ranch, Las Vegas, NM
Responsibilities: Health and pasture management, shipping and receiving on various leases, organizing weekly shipments of cattle between pastures and practice pen for cutting events, starting and developing colts, designing and building pens, corrals, stall barns, and cooking for large numbers at events.
- 5/92 – 3/00 Worked in conjunction with ranch owner/operator, 64,000 acre cow/calf operation, Anton Chico, NM.
Responsibilities: cattle care, calving, culling, sorting, buying bulls, design and building of corrals, prescribed burning of juniper, welding, supervising gathering crews, branding and shipping cattle, buying and selling horses, and general ranch maintenance.
- 11/87 – 5/92 Ranch Manager: 20,000 acre Blair Brown Ranch, Las Vegas, NM.
Responsibilities: Procurement, receiving, processing, health, nutrition, condition, marketing, shipping, general ranch operations, record keeping on yearling cattle, labor management, horse shoeing, pasture rotation, brush control, and logging and timber management.
- 2/85 – 11/87 Ranch Manager: 60,000 acre summer ranch, Vaughn, NM, and 45,000 acre winter ranch near Malaga, NM.
Responsibilities: Obtaining leased land, purchasing, receiving, processing, pre-conditioning, marketing, shipping, and record keeping on 2,200 head yearling operation, moving complete operations both spring and fall, purchasing horses, labor management, and all other ranch operations.

6 pm.

Sadie Lombardi

(Sara K. Lombardi)

Goal: Seeking full time work in the cattle, horse, and/or hospitality industries.

Education & Qualifications:

BA, graduate of Bennington College, Benn., VT, 2000. Double major in Social Science and Art. Self-designed and interdisciplinary education with discussion-based courses examining primary sources.

Lifetime experience in various disciplines of riding. Some experience in stable and herd management, horse training, riding instruction and ranching. Other experience includes massage therapy training, limited international travel, and four and five star restaurant and bar serving.

Experience:

(Gaps in years '06 to '09 show times when I assisted Slim in ranch and horse operations)

03/09 - present: EAGALA certified Equine Specialist and partner with EAGALA certified licensed psychotherapist, DBA Stable Solutions Equine Assisted Programs, Moriarty and Estancia, NM.

Responsibilities: assisting in providing family and group therapy through experiential activities with horses, selecting activities, observing horse behavior, maintaining clients' physical safety, contributing to discussion and providing notes.

09/07 to 01/09: Family Services Programs Manager for CYFD funded programs at Torrance County Project Office, Moriarty, NM.

Responsibilities: organizing community groups and events, evaluating clients, advocating, supervising staff, maintaining client files, and reporting to state CYFD.

07/06 to 04/07: Personal Banker with Wells Fargo, Moriarty, NM.

Responsibilities: opening and maintaining personal accounts, loans and services, as well as supervising tellers and high security transactions.

12/03 to 12/05: Self-employed horseback riding instructor for beginners of all ages in natural horsemanship and trail riding, Santa Fe, NM. Also a Pro-Rider at Las Campanas Equestrian Center, summer of '03.

10/02 to 12/03: Stable Manager, Bishop's Lodge Resort and Spa, Santa Fe, NM.

Responsibilities: Herd, health, and pasture maintenance, scheduling rides, pairing riders with horses, riding instruction, guiding trail rides, supervising and training wranglers, maintaining records, reports, and register, and buying and selling horses.

4/01 to 9/02: Ranch Hand, NOLS Three Peaks Ranch, Pinedale, WY, and Ranch Hand/Colt Starter, Lion Canyon Ranch, Lander, WY.

Responsibilities: Backcountry packing, ranch maintenance, herd management, pasture irrigation, assisting student courses and instructors, cooking, starting colts, re-training problem horses, operating machinery and repairing gear.