There is an instructor course that starts on Oct 4th in Jacksonville. They have other locations but the best instructors and planes are in Jacksonville which is important since spin training is part of the class.
Program is 14 days. Fees are $6000 for the class, plus 1200-1500 for examiner fees. Hotel, rental car and airline tickets are not included.
I would have to get the books, study and take 3 tests before the school starts so I would need to register asap.
Please let me know if I can sign up.
