hi jeffrey,

..i talked 2-3 days ago to garry cunny asking about the ceiling, but he said he doesn't know when they're going to put the scaffolding because the cabinets are not finished yet.., ..i could have probably finish the entire painting by now, but anyway, if we cannot do the ceiling at the island maybe we should do something here at the house on 71st st.

i attached here some pictures of the ceiling in the master barhroom at the third floor. you told me once that you would like to change that painting on the ceiling..something like kandinsky, so i put some of his paintings on the ceiling..i did this in computer.

eventually if you have in mind other paintings maybe you can e-mail them to me, i'll put them on the ceiling and then i can sent them back to you to see how they going to look on the ceiling. i can take pictures of the ceiling from different angles so you can see better the painting on the ceiling.

hi jeffrey,

.. it seems i cannot start painting the ceiling.. i talked to brice two days ago and he told me that i cannot start painting untill probably mid of april.

i was thinking maybe we can do the cabanas in the meantime. if we do them in that pinto's style, we should apply first like three coats of venetian plaster with blades to get a smooth surface, and then painting. the walls in the cabanas have a texture because they were painted before with roller, and make them smooth it is going to take some time.. we have to prime them and then venetian plaster three coats i was thinking of this just to have something done..
