I have to say that I liked best the tight grid, the one inspired by the Escorial Palace. Tight grids absorb the unavoidable tire marks and make a parking space, always big, less so and much less glaring in the sun and infinitely more pleasant. Large slabs of "flooring" get damaged quite quickly. We could keep the original 18"by 18" grid and simply put a pebble line between them.

yes i did,, You need to either be on site, or work with a photo. , we might need to add planters. I have tried to do this from a distance , it does not work. the new sketches are appreciated. however i dont think they work . maybe we need a diagonal,, there is a opening to the beach at the end of the path , and these sketches focus your attention on that,, the opening is not in the drawing therefore misleading. when will you have an hour or two .?

OK!
Did you get the sketches I faxed for the parking at the library ? I'll resketch the steam shower. I am with clients all day visiting houses leaving early with their plane and back later tonight. Give me the complete list of what you want resolved aujourd'hui.
Robert

I want to focus on the island.. I see we need much more coordination. I would like to speak with you today. my house staff is with me in palm beach, so we will need to delay the move of furniture on 71 st. So to move forward,, I would like to resolve the critical island issues. today or tomorrow. steam . parking. etc.
