Thanks for coming in last week. As we discussed, we would be very happy to offer you an internship with Findus, in our central marketing team here in London.

Our suggestion is that you work with us for 3 months to get a sense of how our marketing teams operate across the group. If it's still convenient, you could start on 12th July and work through until mid October. We have a number of interesting projects underway at the moment that would give you a good insight into marketing and also allow to you deliver a concrete output during your time with us. We can talk about what these are, and what your specific role could be, in more detail when you join us.

We'll work on the details of your role and package over the next few days and get in touch to talk them through. In the meantime, please feel free to give me a call at any time. I'll be in touch shortly to set up to check that this works for you and to set up your first day.

Best wishes,

Nick
