I've been organizing your house, cleaned, made a cake for your return, bought you new clothes, offered my help, shopped for Paris supplies today, my attitude has been playful, I haven't mentioned a girl since I saw you, I very much enjoyed our walk, I organized fun for today and I reminded you that today is time for you to do your part as agreed 2 months ago. You could have handed me the list you promised and we could have moved on. I had no interest to discuss it further but I wanted to see if you were actually going to do it. I wanted to see if I can again trust you to keep some of the more important promises as we move on. But it's not a surprise you are backing out. I forwarded the emails to you today so you see how clear it is. It could have been painless but it's a struggle again. Very simple deal, there is no gray area regarding what should have happened today. I have nothing to add to it and I see no reason to argue.

you write this self serving drivel. , but ignore the fact that these were not even agreed. you leave out the subsequent one.s written by me, these were written by you , and i immediately said i did not fully agree. , and as you saw i told you i would respond ,though even two weeks later as you can see , you are still nagging me, about who is at the house. I am unable to go on like this
