- 2 kitchen , I am bringing sketches to our meeting be thinking of how you use it
- 3 you will get a picture of a mock up square column on the master, one 10" and a 12" the 10" is Gensler spec for the size of one of the doubles and seems spindly as a single 12" looks better in my mind, review the pic's and we'll get direction at the meeting. I also will try to get an opinion from Gensler.

Steven and I reviewed the site plan on your issue with the axis .I couldn't see it either. we came up with another idea which he'll draw up. I think it would be good for him to attend our meeting on the 15th. Ok?

I will send you a agenda of items to review at our meeting .
